MUSIC

JAZZ Far Side of Here by the Brooklyn Sax Quartet (Omnitone). You won't even miss the bass and drums as these four horns bob and weave and play with the abandon of children—albeit very smart, well-trained children. Whether they're rendering their own songs or songs by Dizzy Gillespie and Billy Strayhorn, the musicians get deep inside the compositions and blow their way out with melody, harmony, and rhythm.

—Keith Goetzman
